it has transpired that the Pope has been kept informed by tolegraph of the course and progress of public affairs in Ireland, and he is prefoundly impressed by the unprecedented success of Parcell's war with the possishood. The victories of the politician are considered as making a new departure in the relations of the priests and the people. It is said in this connection that the Eupreme Pontiff will shortly leave a papal manifesto, in which he will thunder against Parnell and his fleutenants as manifesto, in which he will thunder against Parnell and his lieutenants as revolutionary propagandists, whose aim is to transplant to Irish soil continents locialism and infidelity.
